Inspiration

- With millions of places in our database, you are guaranteed to find something worth a trip.
 - Explore thousands of weird, offbeat, unexpected, and wonderful places you can't find anywhere else.
 - Select from our list of categories—like “Outdoors & Recreation” or “Camping & RV”—to find exactly the places you're interested in.
 - Read reviews and see photos from your fellow roadtrippers.
 - Find helpful information about places, including opening hours, accessibility, WiFi availability, and whether your furry friends are welcome.
- Read stories written by travel journalists and experts out on the road to get inspiration for your next trip.
- Copy our curated trip guides to your account and adjust them to fit your plans.
- Save your favorite places so you can add them to a trip later, or share them immediately with your friends and followers.
- Not sure where to start? Our list of Extraordinary Places contains thousands of must-see spots handpicked by our team.

Trip Planning

- Once you determine where your trip starts and ends, tell us what you're into and Roadtrippers will help you find the best stops along the way.
- We're always working on new features to make the trip building process simple. Here are just a few that are already in place:
 - Add a place to your trip with one click.
 - Rearrange your stops in any order and our system automatically optimizes your route.
 - Turn your one-way trip into a round trip with one click.
 - Choose to avoid highways and get off the beaten path.
 - Copy your trip and try out a different route by adding or removing stops.
- See how long each leg of your trip is and how much gas you'll use based on your vehicle.
- Book hotels with just a few clicks.

On the Road

- Need some inspiration while you're out on the road? The Roadtrippers app immediately shows you the best places nearby.
- Your trips are automatically synced between your computer and phone or tablet so you can hit the road without any added steps.
- Navigate with turn-by-turn directions between all the amazing places on your trip.
- Print your route and all the details for each stop to use off the grid.

Post Trip

- Add personal notes and dates to each stop to keep all your travel details in one place.
- Add pictures and commentary to any trip to make your own in-depth travel guide.
- Easily share your past and future trips with friends and family.
- All your past trips are saved in one place, easily accessible to retake or simply remember.

2. Click “Embed” to get your code, and drop the code into an embed block on your website/blog.
3. Add your affiliate parameter to the Roadtrippers maps link for tracking.

Roadtrippers Membership In-Depth Review

1. We've found one of the best ways to promote Roadtrippers is actually through an in-depth, honest review of the platform. This tactic is simply sharing a well-informed review of the app or the way you travel using the app.
2. Things to Highlight:
 - a. Extraordinary Places - did you visit any Extraordinary Places thanks to our recommendations? Or did you add some new ones to your bucket list?
 - b. Did we make it easy to plan your road trip?
 - c. Did we help you find the coolest stops along your route?
 - d. Did we make it easy to filter to find certain types of spots? I.e. campgrounds, hotels, etc.
 - e. Did you use the RV specific navigation feature or locate an Overnight RV Parking stop?
